Press Release

Arkansas City man arrested for restraining, battering woman

Criminal damage to property, criminal trespass also alleged against Cabrales

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan. (April 9, 2016) — An Arkansas City man was arrested last Tuesday by the Arkansas City Police Department for allegedly battering a woman in southeast Arkansas City.

Felipe Enriquez Cabrales Jr., 27, was arrested on suspicion of aggravated battery, assault, criminal damage to property, criminal restraint and criminal trespass.

He was transported to and booked into the Cowley County Jail in Winfield in lieu of $12,950 bond through Cowley County District Court in Arkansas City. He remained in custody at the time of this release.

Officers responded about 2:37 p.m. April 5 to a disturbance in the 800 block of South E Street.

An Arkansas City woman was inside the home when Cabrales allegedly entered the apartment and restrained her against her will.

He refused to leave when she told him to, battered her and broke some of her property, she said.

A defendant's guilt or innocence is to be determined by a court of law.
